

Spark Love 2023

Volunteers will cheer the runners and watch for cars. Cars should only be stopped long enough to allow pedestrians to cross. Smile! Stay faced towards the course and positively engage with the participants and drivers/neighbors – do not be on your phones, even while you are waiting for runners to get to where you are, please.

